

Dear Friends,

Once again its raffle time for the Irish Wolfhound Health Group. Hard to believe it's nearly 3 years since our last Crufts monster raffle, which raised over £2000 for the Group.

We again have a huge array of wonderful prizes, all donated by friends and supporters of the Group.

The draw will take place November 11, during the lunch break at the Groups Seminar, "Breeding for the Future" in St Peters Church Hall Balsall, Coventry.

So please everyone, dig deep into your pockets and start purchasing ticket. Only £2 each.

1st We have all dreamed of living the life of superstars, so why not try and win that dream? Our top prize, donated by Trudie Sumner, is a weekend for 4 people, self-catering in one of her luxurious homes - a choice either of a cottage in Wiltshire or a house in Grasmere.

2nd Ireland is the homeland of Irish Wolfhounds, so why not try to win a self-catering weekend for you and up to 7 friends in one of Fingal's most picturesque villages? A short car drive gets you into the centre of Dublin and many other wonderful and historic places. You might even get the opportunity to hug a Wolfhound or two on your trip!! Presented by the Finney Family

3rd This prize might not get you to Tuscany but you can dream about it when you are sipping some fantastic wine from vineyard Il Palagio, Tuscany, Italy. Again our thanks to Trudi Sumner.

4th A self-catering weekend winter/spring break in Bonny Scotland for up to 4 people in Aberdour, Fife. Available to enjoy Sept 1st to Feb 28th 2018. Presented by Linda Forrett.

5th To keep your dog happy and cosy lazing in front of the fire for the coming winter, a giant Knuffelwuff dog bed (Wolfhound size). Presented by Jackie Wilkinson

6th Every dog needs a made to measure cool coat in its wardrobe, so this is a prize which will be much appreciated by your canine friend. Presented by Steven Ritchie

7th Everyone has something to celebrate - a big show win or a birthday - so what's nicer than a delicious cake to add to the festivities. Master baker Julie Amoo will be happy to bake it for you.

8th To keep your dog looking in top condition for the show ring or at home, we have a hamper of grooming tools. Put together by master groomer Wendy Heather

9th The dog owner must look smartly dressed too. So, to add to your wardrobe we have an IWHG zipped up hoodie and bum bag. Presented by Rebecca Peek

10th Interesting reading for anyone thinking of breeding a litter or just for general information. A book "Breeding is a Bitch" author, Dr Kurt de Kramer, South Africa. Thanks you Dr Kramer for this lovely book.

11th At times every owner needs to relax, and what's better than a nice relaxing bath? We have some beautiful Woodlands bath treats for you to enjoy. Presented by Rebecca Peek

12th To make your dinner table even more special for your guests, a classy set of four Irish Wolfhound table mats
